nati, where they broke even with the Reds in the series, tackled Donovan's Cardinals here to-day, determined to take all four games. An even break or three out of four wouldn't do at all. The coat of whitewash administered by the despised Cincinnatians yesterday was a bitter dose for Brooklyn, but the Hanlon bunch figured it all out and decided that four wins over St. Louis decided that four wins over St. Louis would be the proper antidote and they went forth as confident of victory as though the series had already been won. Perfect weather conditions and the absence of the Browns resulted in a big attendance at League Park when the game was called. In the warming up the Brooklyn boys gave a gingerly exhibition that drew forth continued approximately an acceptance of the proper antidote and they were all the plate. Farrell drove out to Sheckard.
